About the Instructor:

Dr. Princess-O`dilia, Author, Radio/TV Personality, International Speaker, Educator and Entrepreneur began teaching in 1999. In 2001, she developed a few courses, including Credit Enhancement and Real Estate Investing where in which she taught at Marygrove College for a few years. To further her mission of helping others to help themselves without boundaries, she founded a Continuing Education Department within her non-profit organization, Bountiful Opportunities Group, Inc., and collaborated this mission with her investment and consulting firm, Opportunity First Financial Services where in which she was the Co-founder. Dr. Princess-O`dilia lectured 5 of the courses offered, including Business Development, Credit Enhancement and various Investment courses. As Dr. Princess-O`dilia teaches with a thorough and tenacious drive, she inspires her students with knowledge, wisdom, resources and tools for all subject matters in which she teaches. She is known to share things that no one would share, going to the limits beyond for her students, who often become her clients.
